Restaurant News: Himmarshee Public House Starting Sunday Brunch Party This Week

By Sara Ventiera Thu., Apr. 24 2014 at 8:04 AM. Categories: Happening, Restaurant News

Sunday is supposed to be all about continuing the party from Saturday night -- if you're not, like, So, anyway.

Really the only thing you should be thinking about when you wake up on the first day of the week is a) Where's the ibuprofen and b) Where to go get your drink on for the day (alright, two things, actually).

Downtown Fort Lauderdale is about to get its newest Sunday Brunch Party this week; Himmarshee Public House is opening its doors for a new breakfast/lunch hybrid.

Launching Sunday at 10 a.m., the downtown eatery is offering a selection of comfort fare and morning cocktails along with live entertainment.

"We're featuring the Adam David Band, an 80's and 90's full live cover band, and a perfect venue for large groups (6 to 25 people) that are looking to Sunday Funday all day long," says Marc Falsetto, Founder of JEY Hospitality, Owner of Rok:Brgr and Himmarshee Public House.
